FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY
CONGRATULATES
THE CLASS OF 1981
"DEEDS NOT WORDS"

The Latin word Res Non Verba translated means "Deeds Not Words." During the 113 years history of Fayetteville State University, this university has lived up to those high ideals.

What began in 1867 as the Howard School in a frame building on Gillespie Street has grown today into a full pledge comprehensive university serving the cultural and educational needs of the Southeastern part of North Carolina. In 1969, the college was designated a "regional university" and its name was changed to Fayetteville State University. Fayetteville State University became a "constituent institution" of the University of North Carolina in 1972 and began graduate studies in the fall of 1980.

Words alone could not accomplish this feat. The deeds of the dedicated people who have been a part of this great institution have allowed Fayetteville State University to stand up to the high principals it was build on: Res Non Verba "Deeds Not Words."

DEDICATION

PROFILE OF A SUCCESSFUL WOMAN

Mrs. Emarretta Felton was born in Lumber Bridge, North Carolina. She is married to Mr. Albert W. Felton, a native of Hertford, North Carolina and from this union one daughter was born, Jean Jacqueline Felton.

Mrs. Felton received her Bachelor of Science degree at this university and her Master of Arts degree at New York University. The experiences with people of varied cultures and ethnic backgrounds helped broaden her base of understanding and appreciation for all people of the world.

Mrs. Felton taught at Oak Ridge High School for twenty years. In 1965 she began teaching at Ferguson Elementary School. She was well prepared for the job because of her broad base of experiences. Mrs. Felton quotes, "Teaching is my chosen profession and I consider it a glorious and noble one that I will cherish always."

She is a member of the North Carolina Association of Educators, Fayetteville State University Board of Trustees, National Alumni Association of Fayetteville State University, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., First Baptist Church, President of Cumberland County Chapter of Fayetteville State University Alumni Association and has recently been named the local Teacher of the Year.

COMMENTS FROM MRS. FELTON'S STUDENTS

Mrs. Felton is a wonderful teacher. She is fair, honest, polite, and very understanding. She is the best teacher anyone would ever want to have! She deserves to be the Teacher of the Year!

Kimberly Hunter

I think Mrs. Felton has been an Outstanding teacher throughout the year, not only to me, but to the rest of the class as well.

Greg Fenderson

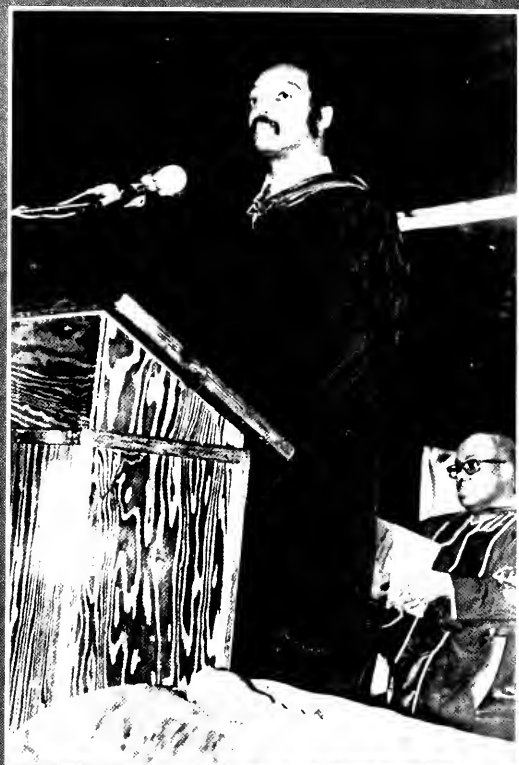

Mrs. Felton's impressive history of teaching, her commitment to this university and community gives us an honor to dedicate the 1980-81 Fayettevillian Yearbook to Mrs. Emarretta Felton.

WATERMELON CUTTING

Over thirty-eight (38) watermelons were cut, Wednesday, June 11, 1980.

The gala affair began at 12:00 p.m.—2:00 p.m. on the Student Center Patio. The students were entertained with selections of jazz songs from the dynamic Klicky Robinson and Ray Codrington and band.

Students had the watermelon "munch". Whether they ate it with a fork or their hands it was "finger licking good".

CAROWINDS

The Lyceum program sponsored an expense paid trip to Carowinds during the 1st Summer Session of Summer School.

Saturday, the day students look forward to study catch up, laundry or just lounging around turned into an exciting day of relaxation, pleasure and thrills at Carowinds.

The cyclone was one of the new rides at Carowind that aroused a lot of attention to the spectators.

KLICKY ROBINSON & RAY CODRINGTON

Klicky Robinson and Ray Codrington, in the background, play a melody of jazz selections

The student body was captivated with several jazz selections from Klicky Robinson and Ray Codrington and band during the annual watermelon cutting.

This was the kind of entertainment FSU students needed after sitting in class all morning.

CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the Fayetteville State University Family and myself, I take this opportunity to congratulate the senior class of 1981 and to wish each graduate a successful and happy future!

Our institution is committed to meeting the requirements of all students regardless of race, creed, color, or sex. Each of you must strive to maintain the frontiers of freedom and opportunity. Education can fulfill the needs and desires and thereby lay the foundation for utilization of your full talents.

Since its founding, 113 years ago, Fayetteville State University has been committed to academic excellence and we can look back to a proud and rich heritage. As an alumnus, you must take your rightful place in the world of work and face the challenges which lie ahead. With each graduating class it is our ongoing process to perpetuate the existence of our beloved alma mater. And this I am confident you will do, for we must never forget the path that leads us to happiness and fulfillment.

MEMORIAL

Derrick Tinsley, a rising Sophomore was kind, gentle and very appreciative of life's pleasures. His presence is truly missed from our University Family.

TIME

Time cannot steal the treasures
That we carry in our hearts,
Nor ever dim the shining
thoughts
Our cherished past
imparts . . .
And memories of the one
we've loved
Still cast his gentle glow
To grace our days and light
our paths
Wherever we may go.

by Jimmy Gibbs

Bulwer

DERRICK TINSLEY

We are born for a higher destiny than earth. There is a place where the rainbow never fades. Where stars will spread out before us like islands that slumber on the ocean, and where the beginnings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever.

THE HISTORY OF THE PAN HELLENIC-COUNCIL

The National Pan-Hellenic Council was organized in May, 1930 at Howard University, Washington D.C. The Charter members were: Kappa Alpha Psi and Omega Psi Phi Fraternities; Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta and Zeta Phi Beta Sororities.

In 1931 Alpha Phi Alpha and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternities joined the Council and in 1937 Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority completed the list of organizations that continues to comprise the affiliate organizations of the National Pan-Hellenic Council.

The stated purpose of the organization in 1930 was "Unanimity of thought and action as far as possible in the conduct of Greekletter collegiate fraternities and sororities, and to consider problems of mutual interest to its member organizations."

Early in 1937, the organization was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois and became known as "The National Pan-Hellenic Council Incorporated."

GROOVE PHI GROOVE SOCIAL FELLOWSHIP

L-R Shannon Sutton and Eugene Lowery

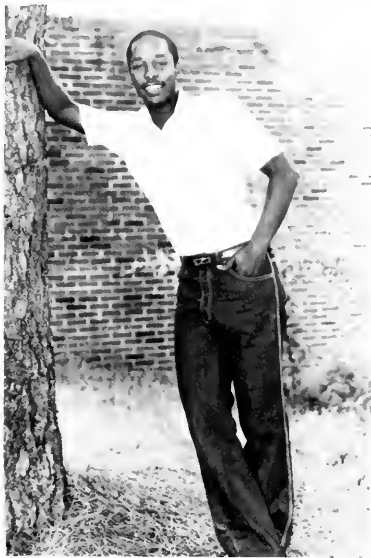

The essence of Groove Phi Groove cannot be embellished in a few short words, especially by one that holds not a sword. But the warmth of love and unity is so profound, until one often knows when a Groove is around. Their strength is as one, together their work is done. For these brothers standing tall, work for a cause. "It's no big thing but growing" and with each new growth Brotherhood is showing. For to be a Groove is to love your brothers and to love your brothers is what Groove is all about.

General Studies

The objectives for the General Studies Division are to provide a sound and basic academic program from students of varied levels of achievement and at the same time provide a stimulating academic environment which will engender positive self-concepts necessary for optimum success in the chosen major. After completing the general core of courses, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate that they have acquired skill in the art of logical, relative and creative thinking;
2. Evidence the fundamental skills of effective communication through oral and written methods;
3. Demonstrate that they have mastered techniques of acquiring and utilizing knowledge;
4. Show concrete evidence of acceptance of the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship in the community and national affairs;
5. Analyze and choose courses of action which will contribute to the solution of programs;
6. Demonstrate a knowledge of intellectual and aesthetic accomplishments in both environmental and cultural expressions which represent the world millieu;

Dr. J. C. Moore
A Great Inspiration

"Whatever you want for your life's work, if you have a very deep love in your heart of dedication, you will be able to do the very best job you are capable of doing. You must also have a love for the student or you can't teach him very much." This was the philosophy of a man who was both a scholar and a humanist. That man was Dr. J. C. Moore, a "Great Inspiration."

Dr. Moore was a "Great Inspiration" because he was dedicated to his students. He departed this life on Monday, September 1, 1980. Every student who had the honor of taking a class under Dr. Moore was stunned by his death. Many of us lost more than a teacher because we looked upon Dr. Moore as a fatherly figure. We cannot repay him for the inspiration he gave most of us, however, because we loved him so much the first edition of The Voice for 1980-81 is dedicated to Dr. J. C. Moore.

Dr. John Clayton Moore, Associate Professor of Humanities in the Area of English and Dramatic Arts, departed this life on Monday, September 1, 1980 at his home.

Dr. Moore joined the faculty at Fayetteville State University in August, 1975. A true scholar, his demeanor was that of a man of knowledge. He believed in the art of teaching and felt that a professor's job was "to teach" and he did just that.

During his tenure at Fayetteville State University, he served on a wide variety of University committees and taught the interdisciplinary courses: Music, Art and Drama, which sparked his generation of the late Dr. J. C. Moore, Jr., News

A Dedicated Instructor

"I'll lock the door at 8 O'clock"

Dr. Moore would calmly say . . .
"And if we have late comers
They won't get in today!"

"This is your next assignment"
Were words he said each week . . .
The rest was up to the student
To the library, we would seek . . .

Oh Boy! When that day arrived
To pass the papers back . . .
Everyone would be curious
If Dr. Moore would crack . . .

But, after it all was over . . .
And the end of the semester had come . . .
We all could proudly say
We've learned from what we've done . . .
By Valery Frazier

Rest On . . . Dr. Moore

The Lord is merciful and mighty
For he knows just what is best . . .
We must have our faith in him
And aim to pass His test . . .

When loved ones are called away . . .
Our eyes become full of tears . . .
But, we must learn to be cheerful
To overcome our fears . . .

Sometimes the unexpected goes
And we don't understand . . .
But, we can smile on Dr. Moore
Cause he was a wonderful man . . .

A TRIBUTE TO
 "A MAN DESERVING RECOGNITION"

A winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964 and a passionate believer in using nonviolent methods no matter what the provocation might be, King fought the battle against bigotry with courage and eloquence until his violent death in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1968.

King preached nonviolence to his followers as he led them to many civil rights victories, including the Civil Rights Act of 1965 and the 1963 March on Washington, which was attended by a huge crowd of people.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

This year, the Fayettevillian Staff enters into the 1980's with an exclusive yearbook designed especially for Fayetteville State University. The cover displays our Mascot the Bronco. Our publication's theme Res Non Verba translated as "Deeds Not Words" is taken from the Fayetteville State University Seal.

The 1980-81 Fayettevillian Yearbook is dedicated to Mrs. Emaretta Felton for her impressive history of teaching and good deeds toward the community.

I would like to thank God, the staff, the advisors, Mr. Irving Veazie, Mrs. Rosemary Byrd, Mr. John B. Henderson and special thanks to Mr. Charles Mooney.

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Dennis Hilliard". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.
